Mr. Kennedy Mubanga,

Thanks for your email. However, as you might know by now, The Barotse Royal Establishment has rescinded its BNC Resolutions and have opted to dialogue with the Government. Secondly, there is no Kaoma Cheke Cha Mbunda Cultural and Writers Association. What is obtaining there is Kaoma District Committee of Cheke Cha Mbunda Cultural and Writers Association. Our Constitution says; District Committees report to Provincial Committees and Provincial Committees report to The National Executive Committee. Therefore Kaoma Cheke Cha Mbunda Cultural and Writers Association is not a legal entity in Zambia to issue press statements, but through The National Executive Committee, following the channel we have alluded to above. Please read the Constitution and follow it, we do not want to appear as a confused group. As far as we are concerned your resolution is not different from the one given by The National Executive Committee, to warrant you giving a separate press statement.

I would have loved to attend your meeting on 7th April 2012. However it has coincided with an invitation earlier by The Angolan Embassy in Zambia, to give a keynote speech at the celebration of "Angola Peace Day" on the same day. His Majesty, King Mbandu has also been invited by His Excellency, The Angolan President to Luanda, on similar circumstances. Angola is happy with our history narration and want all Angolan to know it. They acknowledge that Mbunda is a big tribe and third to enter Angola.

We wish you best deliberations,
Ndandula Libingi.

Looking forward to your constructive contributions as usual.

Mr. National Chairman,

Kindly find attached a Press Statement which is sent to you by Mr Chingi Kabindama in line with your phone conversation with him yesterday. You are also being informed that there is a District Indaba in Kaoma called by the Nkoyas to which they have invited all the tribes found in Kaoma scheduled for Saturday 7th April, 2012 at the Kaoma Trades Training Institution. The Indaba intends to respond to the 2012 BNC held recently in Mongu. Our position is clear as stated in your submission in Mongu, however there is an aspect of specific areas of development needs to be identified by us on the ground and presented. Being an important Indaba, we extend the invitation to you as well.

Thank you.
