Dear All

In my view, the interim committee/management should manage the affairs of the organisation until such time as permanent structures are into place. Also information sharing is crucial because it is the only way we can keep each other abreast and know what is going on.

Nevertheless it seems the Prince Chiyengele may not be happy with the interim leadership of the organisation. Such concerns are also very important, but I am wondering if this is the right forum to address such sentiments.

Could we be left out about the issues of leadership of the organisation and such be addressed accordingly. Personally I am grateful for the information and we will circulate to other Mbundas who may be interested in the ceremony, however, I would be grateful if I am not copied on the issues of leadership unless it is felt that I can be of any assistance.

Yours faithfully,

Subject: Re: 2014 CHEKE CULTURAL CEREMONY

The Statement Prince Elijah Chiyengele makes reference to, is actually a Press Statement meant for the press so that information about the 2014 Cheke Cultural Ceremony is circulated to as many people as possible so that those who feel responsible for the preservation of their Mbunda language and its culture can come on board to help. Mr. Du Mbandu felt that he could contribute by circulating the same to those found on the Cheke Cha Mbunda email communication network. Therefore Mr. Du Mbandu was actually in order to forward the same to interested stakeholders. What matters however is whether one wishes to see Mbunda preserved or swallowed up by other interested tribal groups for their own benefit and this is the principal contention in the Cheke Cha Mbunda.

Thank you,

Liale Lya Mubanga.
Vice National Secretary.

The Chairperson of Cheke cha Mbunda.

We know you are in interim but for now you are in charge of all Cheke cha Mbunda affairs. Correct me if am wrong, Sir.

We wondered how this e-mail came from Mr. Du Mbandu and your secretary expressed surprise and shock that there is such a communication. We would love to hear from you as national Chairperson if this your style of leadership.

Prince Elijah Chiyengele
